Dear Mr. Hoover:

It's not very often that people of our age can get together and celebrate, but I've found a good excuse. On September 16th, I'm going to be 80 years old. To help me enjoy the day, I'd like to have you and a group of us old folk come on down to Louisville as my guests. I do believe that us folk can show those young people what celebratin's all about.

I, of course, will arrange for all transportation and hotel reservations -- just call on my secretary, Wanda Boner, and tell her when you all will be in town.

I hope to hear from you all soon,

I remain,
