

PROFESSIONAL ACCELERATION WORKSHOP

Presented for: Law Students & Invited Professionals

At The University of Florida, College of Law

SATURDAY, MAY 30, 2015

10:00am—3:00pm (Lunch Included)

MODERATED BY ALAN S. GASSMAN, J.D., LL.M. & PROFESSOR DENNIS CALFEE

Please join us for a 5 hour CLE approved interactive workshop that will completely engage all participants in personal goal setting, one-on-one conversations about how to handle practical challenges and obstacles, important strategies for business and personal relationships, and one-on-one client interaction techniques that are commonly used by the most successful professionals.

The workshop consists of 5 fifty-five minute sessions. In the first session, we will talk about goals and all of the things that each of us has to be thankful for. During the second session, we will discuss eliminating frustrations and obstacles.

The third session will be spent reviewing exercises that can be used to solve problems, develop strategies, and enable participants to think out of the box about unique and effective ways to achieve objectives and handle issues that everyone faces.

During the fourth session, we will talk about clients. We will discuss how they think and how we can most effectively attract, serve, and retain them.

In the fifth session, we will talk about techniques and strategies to have appropriate work-life balance, maximize efficiency, and enhance overall life enjoyment.

Based upon participant interest, we may have a subsequent workshop in Gainesville to follow through and reinforce what is discussed.

The workshop is sponsored by Gassman, Crotty, and Denicolo, P.A., of Clearwater, Florida. Students and employees of University of Florida will attend for free, and invited professionals are requested to make a small donation to the Stephen Lind Chair at the University of Florida Tax Program. (Course notebook with over 300 pages of materials is included at no charge.)

I was fortunate to attend the Law Practice and Professional Development Workshop conducted by Alan Gassman, Esq. in Clearwater, Florida on August 3, 2014. The Workshop covered a wide range of topics from Goal Setting and Gratitude to as practical a topic as law office logistics. Alan's approach was intimate, self-revelatory and highly instructive. I have been practicing law for 20 years and have never attended a program as broad ranging, practical and encouraging. The depth of Alan's thought and experience is obvious in the materials and in the ease with which he led the discussions. This was not a dull lecture but a highly engaging workshop that was over before you expected it to be.

I am super charged from the workshop. I have already started to work towards my written goals and my subconscious has me waking up almost 2 hours earlier ready to start my day – one of my goals! It really works. I am very grateful to be a part of this and part of your professional community. All of this came from a New Year's resolution last year – I was determined to reach out to professionals I admired even if I felt silly. I wrote you an email when you were in the Galapagos with Marcia & you responded! I was amazed. I had no idea how that email would change my life. Thanks for everything you do and all the ways you help me develop professionally and personally.

I want to personally thank you again for providing me with the unbelievable opportunity to attend your professional acceleration workshop. I came away from your workshop with renewed excitement in improving my practice. While I had long let go of the notion that doing things the old way was the only way, I found myself mentally making changes in nearly every area of my practice. There were added bonuses that are intangible and difficult to articulate. I love what I do, but to be able to do it better, more efficiently, add to my bottom line and, all the while, allow me to have more personal time available in a 60-plus hour week, was truly unexpected. Simply implementing half a dozen of the changes I developed throughout the day as a result of your program will not only enhance the bottom line, but make my days innumerable easier. Thank you so much for giving your time to help other professionals with personal and professional growth.

By having the opportunity to discuss my goals and the obstacles keeping me from achieving those goals with other professionals I was able to define my path to achieve those goals like never before. Not only was I able to improve myself personally, but I also had the unexpected opportunity of being able to have very candid discussions about law practice management and what actually works and doesn't work with experienced lawyers who provided great advice for me as a new lawyer entering the field. The entire experience was invaluable and far more than what I thought it may be. I am very much looking forward to our next session to continue to develop as a young lawyer both personally and professionally.
